Central Virginia Alliance for Community Living (CVACL) offers nutritionally hot meals to home-bound clients or individuals who are unable to leave their home or prepare a meal for themselves. Frozen meals are provided if hot meals cannot be delivered. Receiving a nutritionally balanced meal may be just the support needed to keep you healthy and independent in your home. Depending on your location, you may receive your meals in one of two ways:

Hot meals delivered three to five days per week

Ten chilled meals, delivered every other week, which stay fresh when refrigerated for 14 days

CVACL AniMeals Program is a service that accompanies home delivered meals for individuals who love their pets.

The office is handicap accessible: automatic door; no abrupt level changes; designated accessible parking; all public services on ground floor; restroom stalls large enough for wheelchair turnaround; grab bars in restroom.
