The Respite Care program offers limited financial help for services that enhance the safety and independence of people with MS and/or provide emotional, physical and financial relief to their family caregivers. The program may cover home care for their loved one while the primary caregiver has some well deserved respite.

Offers to fund for services not covered by insurance or other community programs. Examples are housecleaning, respite stay in assisted living or nursing home facility; adult day center participation, or nutrition supplement (Boost or Ensure).

Service area covers the following counties in Maryland: Prince George, Montgomery, St. Mary's, Calvert and Charles.
