Alice Waller of GriefMatters Consulting offers individual support and understanding by telephone to those experiencing the absence (or anticipated absence) of a loved one or loss of something important to them. The grief process is different for each person. She is experienced in helping grieving children. There are no geographical boundaries limiting the scope of this business.

Workshops and lectures are also offered to small or large groups. They are tailored to meet specific needs and interests of group. The topics include death education, lending support to others in grief, and children with grief.

Email Alice Waller and she will get in touch with you on how to proceed with this process.
