Disability Claims Representatives is a non-attorney disability claims representation service assisting people obtain their benefits. The focus is on helping people with serious medical and/or psychiatric disabilities to obtain Social Security disability benefits and identify other state, federal and local programs for financial assistance.

This service oversees the entire process from acquiring and submitting all necessary forms and documentation, to corresponding directly with Social Security, to developing and presenting strategic case arguments until a decision is reached.

Because of the Federal nature of the application process and requirements, this service is offered nationwide.
