Event Description

“Don’t Take My Eyes”: Understanding Anatomical Gifts - In the third of six bimonthly learning sessions for 2020, join Honoring Choices and guest speakers Patti Dean, LifeNet Health, and Rick Sikon, Virginia State Anatomical Program of the Virginia Department of Health, as we hear from the experts about the intricacies of anatomical gift decision-making. Bring your questions and connect with your colleagues as we seek to further our expertise in this critical area of advance care planning. Primary audience: Trained Respecting Choices facilitators and ACP ambassadors – And anyone interested in the topic. Free session. Advance registration is required. Coffee will be provided. CEUs are provided through grant funding from Geriatric Training and Education (GTE) through the Virginia Center on Aging at VCU. Contact Laura Pilati lpilati@ramdocs.org (804) 205-9772 with questions.

NOTE: If the meeting cannot meet at Richmond Academy of Medicine, the sessions will be virtual by ZOOM
