The Southern Piedmont Educational Opportunity Center is administered by Danville Community College and offers assistance to individuals having a desire to enter or re-enter post-secondary education. Assistance is provided with career decision making, admissions, and applying for financial aid. The goal is to help individuals enroll in GED programs, technical programs, or two to four year colleges and universities.

The Educational Opportunity Center (EOC) is a non-profit program administered by Danville Community College and funded by the U.S. Department of Education to serve participants in Franklin, Halifax, Henry, Patrick and Pittsylvania counties and the cities of Danville and Martinsville.
