The Henry County Parks and Recreation offers a large variety of activities and social events for seniors age 60 and over including (some open to 50 and older):

- Trips and Travel Opportunities offered throughout the year,
- Food & Fun activities such as the Breakfast Club, Out-to-Lunch Bunch and Holiday lunches
- Drop-In Activities such as Bingo, Canasta and Rook
- Health Screenings
- And more--Bridge Club, Men's Golf Tournament, Bowling League, Knitting Classes, Scrapbooking Classes, etc.

Call 276-634-4644 for the exact days and times for each event or download a copy of "Senior Link" newsletter for activities listed by month. The newsletter is available to any senior adult interested in being placed on the mailing list. Call Lois at the above number.

Health Screenings are free and available to all adults 50 and above. These screenings are designed to promote awareness and healthier lifestyles for seniors. Screenings are available to check blood pressure, blood sugar and hearing. Information is provided on nutrition and alternative health care needs.
