Alexandria Community Services Board (CSB) offers mental health outpatient services for adults. Services include:

- Individual, group, and family counseling
- Medication management
- Emergency mental health services 24 hours a day
- Assistance with admission to hospitals for psychiatric care
- Case management to help access and coordinate services
- In-home counseling services for the elderly or children in crisis
- Confidential testing for HIV, tuberculosis, and hepatitis

Services are available to residents of the City of Alexandria. Ask to speak with an intake worker. The intake worker will assist you in scheduling an appointment. Hearing-impaired persons may call the TTY line at 703-746-3440.
