The Richmond Department of Parks, Recreation Community Facilities offers the Golden Moments Craft Club at the Pine Camp Cultural Arts Center. Members have input into what the club does. Some of the activities are Senior Music Hour, workshops and classes, Senior Line Dancing, and aerobic classes.

Located outside the community center are three basketball courts, a sculpture garden, a playground, a senior fitness trail, one softball field, and a soccer field.

In addition to Active Adults (Seniors) programs, the center also hosts a summer camp, special events, workshops, after-school programs, and cultural activities at different times.

Please call for more information.
