Lee Senior Center promotes friendship and socialization among participants. The Center provides a wide range of programs of interest to individuals over the age of 55 including health and wellness, nutrition, exercises, educational programs, classes, dancing, holiday functions and assistance with taxes.

Public computer lab for seniors: The computer lab is for senior programs only Monday-Friday 10:00 am until 3:00 pm.

Participants are encouraged to apply for a 55+ pass at a cost of $20/year for an Arlington resident, $30/year for a resident household, $45/year for a non-resident, $65/year for a non-resident household. Nobody will be denied due to inability to pay.

Arlington County maintains five Senior Centers that offer a wide variety of programs and services. Senior Center activities can include exercise and sports, trips, social events, classes and guest speakers, discussion groups and clubs, games, crafts, music and more.
