The Prince William Area Agency on Aging administers the Home Delivered Meal Program. Home delivered noontime meals are delivered to adults, age 60 and older who are unable to leave their home to participate in the congregate meal program. One noontime meal is delivered to persons five days a week, Monday through Friday. Others receive a week or a month's supply of frozen meals. Shelf stable meals are available to individuals to cover days when volunteers cannot delivery meals due to inclement weather.

Participants may qualify for short time while recuperating from a major illness or awaiting support services.

Donations requested. Please call for more information.
