At Lynnhaven Chiropractic Clinic, Dr. Sawyer will assess your problem, perform an examination, explain your diagnosis, recommend what treatment would be best, and begin treatment if necessary and appropriate. The practitioner may incorporate exercise, stretching, massage, physiotherapy, and chiropractic manipulation into the overall treatment protocol.

Chiropractic services include physical exam, nutritional and diet review, functional assessment, osteoporosis evaluation, and checking for immobility and sensory impairment. Areas of specialty include musculoskeletal problems. Also treated are hip pain, low back pain, headaches, arm and leg pain, neck pain and arthritis.
