Danville Police Department offers crime prevention programs. The program enables citizens in the community to provide information concerning crimes with anonymity and confidentiality. Members of the community volunteer their time for the Neighborhood Watch program. The collaborative effort between law enforcement, community members, and community organizations is pivotal in advancing the goal to protect neighborhoods from crime as well as establishing communities that are rich in service and citizenship. Visit Danville's Citizen Guide.

Crime Stoppers: 434-793-0000. Call to report information about a crime in Danville. Information is confidential; no court appearance required; cash rewards; you do not need to reveal your identity.

Call for other crime prevention programs. Call the Department for the most recent scams and schemes.
