The Gateway's mission as a residential recovery program is to provide structured housing and access to rehabilitative services in a safe, supportive, and accountable environment that encourages homeless men in recovery from alcohol and substance abuse to rebuild their lives. The Gateway can accommodate a maximum of 24 men at one time.

Offers the Short Term Program, the Long Term Program, and the Life Action Plan. The Life Action Plan is designed for men in recovery to establish a positive direction in their daily lives and includes, among other things, parenting, education, legal issues, physical exercise, financial planning, conflict resolution, medical and dental needs, and employment.
