Lucy Corr provides comprehensive geriatric rehabilitation services at the Health Care Center. The Transitional Living Unit provides short-term care for residents who benefit from skilled rehabilitation or post-acute convalescent services. The Rehabilitation Center staff works closely with each resident, the resident's family or caregiver and all departments to provide an interdisciplinary approach to meeting the resident's goals.

Available are physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy and restorative maintenance therapy. 16-bed skilled transitional rehabilitation center provides comprehensive geriatric rehabilitation and convalescent services. Full time licensed professionals provide physical, occupational and speech therapy 6 days per week.

The Center is spacious and complete with exercise equipment, adaptive devices, a hydrotherapy area, a large, fully equipped kitchen and living area for training in activities of daily living.
