The Williamsburg Area Learning Tree (WALT) is a not-for-profit education program, a project of Williamsburg Unitarian Universalists. Classes are offered to everyone in the community from teenagers to senior citizens. Classes range from Feng Shui, Tai Chi, Backyard Habitats, Wine Appreciation, Digital Photography, Real Estate Buying, Cake Decorating, Garden ideas, etc. Please call about the more than 50 classes offered in the spring and fall. A complete catalog is offered online. Locations vary.

Volunteers from the community offer their knowledge of a subject so the rest of us can learn. If you are interested in teaching a future WALT course, please call the office.
