Marywood is an Independent Living facility with 112 apartment units designed for seniors and very low to moderate-income residents who have a physical disability. Located in the West end of Richmond near Gayton and Gaskins, the apartments at Marywood are for people who are over the age of 62 or who suffer from physical mobility disabilities. Services include transportation, weekend staff on-call, and social events. There are 5 apartments for the mobility impaired.

Volunteer opportunities include leading activities for the residents, such as exercise classes, Bible studies, current events clubs, music classes, or an arts-and-crafts program. If you are a creative or motivated person who would like to share your talent or passion with others, just call Lynn and let her know what type of program you would like to sponsor for the residents. Visiting with residents is always appreciated too.
