Peninsula READS provides one-to-one instruction by trained volunteer tutors.

Instruction is provided for 2 to 6 hours per week at times convenient to both learner and teacher. Instruction is learner-centered, focusing on the goals, needs and strengths of the adult learners.

ESOL - The training includes introductions to cultural differences, techniques to encourage practice speaking English and computer technology suggestions to help learners be proficient in reading, writing, speaking and in listening in order to understand and to communicate effectively. A one-time fee of $20 will be required.

Family Literacy is also offered.
