Senior Resource Center is located in the Creeds area. It is a place for seniors and their families to go for information, assistance, activities, and socialization. Open five days a week and staffed primarily by volunteers with one DHS Liaison, the Center provides a varying schedule of activities and lectures at no cost. For information, call 757-385-2175.

The Senior Resource Center, Inc. is a 501 (c) (3) volunteer organization designed to help older, rural residents remain safely in their homes by providing in-home and community services; to furnish a gathering place for local seniors for socialization and education. It is a collaborative effort with the City of Virginia Beach
