Bridgewater Retirement Community (BRC) is a registered Life Plan Community, formerly called Continuing Care Retirement Community located in Shenandoah Valley in the historic town of Bridgewater.

BRC offers a variety of maintenance-free residences, including garden and courtyard apartments, and ranch- or single-family cottages. Residence floor plans vary and include one-, two-, and three-bedroom models with one or two bathrooms.

Affordable entrance fees and rental contracts are available. Residents of independent living enjoy a host of amenities and crafts, a reading room, computer center, wellness center, game room, styling salon, and dining. Please call for other amenities.

Outdoor activities include croquet, putting green, shuffleboard, and basketball. Indoor Tennis is available within walking distance and multiple golf courses are located in the immediate area. Bridgewater College is next door and offers additional educational, social, and recreational activities for residents.

There are volunteer opportunities available at BRC and the surrounding community.
