PCCA's Homebound Delivery is a program of Senior Nutrition Program. Home delivered meals are provided to eligible individuals at their place of residence. Meals are delivered 5 days a week all year. Persons over 60 must meet certain eligibility factors which are determined by The Southern Area Agency on Aging.

Major factors in determining eligibility are 1) over age 60 or the spouse of an eligible person; 2) income level; 3) physical health; 4) mental health; 5) living arrangements.

Call the office to set up an eligibility assessment for yourself or someone you think needs the service. Contact the Southern Area Agency on Aging by calling 800-468-4571.

Congregate Nutrition allows for seniors to attend sites in Danville, Martinsville, Henry County, and Pittsylvania County.
