CommonWealth Catholic Charities (CCC) Homeless Prevention Program or Housing Resource center can assist eligible individuals and families in the Greater Richmond area who, without assistance, would become homeless. CCC assists with rent and utilities and provides supportive services to assist program participants to become stable in the short term and successful in the years beyond.

If you are in need of assistance, call the Homeless Point of Entry Program at 804-648-4177 to be screened for eligibility.

Interpreter Services can be arranged when given advance notice and where resources are available.
