Linwood Robinson Center offers fellowship and recreation to senior citizens. This Center is the only senior citizen center operated and staffed by the City of Richmond. Individuals aged 60 and older are offered diversified leisure programs and activities, opportunities for community involvement, cultural enrichment, wellness, and health information, nutrition services, transportation, and information and referrals about community resources.

Stay active and healthy. Visit the Center.

The Golden Age Club meets at Randolph Community Center on Wednesdays at 10 am. Call for information about summer schedule.
