The Community Service Center provides the following programs for deaf adults who have a disability or are economically disadvantaged:

Information, Referral and Advocacy - Individuals are assisted to find and gain access to local services which they need. Services may include legal, residential, health or transportation services, education and benefits counseling. Individuals are assisted in looking for and securing housing, including providing information, conducting a housing search, serving as a landlord liaison, and assisting in budgetary matters.

Personal Counseling Services - Counseling services are offered for individuals, families and groups. Fees are assessed on a sliding scale and limited evening appointments are available.

Convenient to a bus. Convenient to Brookland-Catholic U. subway stop.
