Safelink Wireless is a program supported by the government that offers a free mobile phone and minutes each month for income-eligible people. SafeLink Wireless, Lifeline service can be obtained by getting enrolled in the program. You may be eligible if you are enrolled in Medicaid or SNAP.

Lifetime Assistance is part of that program. SafeLink Wireless Service does not cost anything; there are no contracts or monthly charges. Minutes roll-over.

In order to participate in the SafeLink Wireless service, persons must meet certain eligibility requirements set by each state where the service is to be provided. These requirements are based on a person's participation in a state or Federal support program or by meeting the Income Poverty Guidelines as defined by the U.S. Government. SafeLink Wireless service is limited to one person per household.
