Older adults are transported to congregate meal sites, Friendship Cafes, the post office, grocery stores, medical appointments, and other essential services in Goochland, Hanover, and Powhatan counties. The SPAN Center, formerly Senior Connections, provides meals and socialization and CAPUP provides the transportation.

On-Call Transportation is available for seniors in Powhatan County and Goochland County in need of transportation to and from medical and social services appointments.

People with disabilities who reside in Powhatan County and are referred by the Community Services Board or the Department of Rehabilitative Services are transported to and from their place of employment.
