The Healing Place is a long-term peer-driven residential recovery program serving the Greater Richmond community. Men suffering from substance use disorder carve pathways to sobriety, employment, and spiritual wellness. The Healing Place program includes a workforce development program, a transitional sober living community, and an active Alumni Association to support lifelong sobriety. Services are available at no cost. Services are currently available for men and will be available for women in the near future. Learn more about the CARITAS Center at Visit CARITAS

The Healing Place is a program of CARITAS. CARITAS's mission is to help our most vulnerable neighbors break the cycles of addiction and homelessness to reclaim their dignity.
