JABA offers home care assistance to those 60+ who need assistance with household tasks, essential shopping, meal preparation, and other household activities. Home care enables individuals to remain independent and live at home. Approved activities do not include personal care services such as bathing, toileting, transferring, and medication management.

Application to receive services is made through a JABA Aging Services Coordinator. The Aging Services Coordinator will conduct a free assessment and will eligibility. The Aging Services Coordinator will also determine the hourly fee if applicable. There is no fee to those who meet income eligibility requirements.
