Sentara Martha Jefferson's Cancer Care Center provides a special approach to cancer care for patients and their families in Central Virginia. Care is provided by a team of physicians, nurses, therapists, and other professionals under one roof in a patient-oriented facility. The goal is to provide top-quality cancer treatment in a setting that is comfortable and convenient. Among the types of cancer treated are breast, prostate, colon and rectal, lung, kidney and renal, bladder, skin, lymphoma, metastatic disease, and more.
