Published on SeniorNavigator (https://seniornavigator.org)

Working in Agriculture

What is AgrAbility?

The AgrAbility Project assists people with disabilities who work in agriculture. The Cooperative Extension Service works with a private non-profit disability service agency to provide practical education and assistance for you. The Project works with small and large businesses.

What kind of programs and services are available?

The AgrAbility staff provide:

- trainings
- site visits
- on-farm assessments
- technical assistance
- information directly to the farmer or rancher with a disability

Who is Eligible?

Those eligible for AgrAbility services may have any type of disability. It can be physical, cognitive, or illness-related. For example:

- Amputation
- Diabetes
- Arthritis
- Mental Illness
- Back Injury
- Multiple Sclerosis
- Blindness or Vision Impairment
- Muscular Dystrophy
- Cancer

- Post-Polio Syndrome
- Cardiac Problem
- Respiratory Problem
- Cerebral Palsy
- Spinal Cord Injury
- Cognitive Impairment
- Stroke
- Deafness or Hearing Impairment
- Traumatic Brain Injury

What does the AgrAbility Project Cost?

There are no costs for most of the services offered through the AgrAbility Project.

Where can I find out more?

AgrAbility Project National Home Page

AgrAbility Project Virginia

Article Source

The Office for Aging Services of the Division for Community Living Source URL

https://vda.virginia.gov

Last Reviewed

Tuesday, September 15, 2020