

Published on SeniorNavigator (<https://seniornavigator.org>)

Home Improvement Scams: Tools to Reduce Your Risk

Most of us prefer to live independently in our own home and community. To remain independent as you grow older it's important to maintain and repair your home and to consider modifications to accommodate your changing needs.

The National Association of Area Agencies on Aging (n4a) and Eldercare Locator have compiled information and resources to help you avoid potential home improvement scams. These scams can jeopardize your independence because they can rob you of money, equity in your home or even a safe place to live.

Explore critical information, tips, and resources to help you avoid being the target of a home repair or improvement scam.

Tool to Reduce Risk for Home Improvement Scams

Article Source

USAging

Source URL

<https://www.usaging.org/>

Last Reviewed

Tuesday, January 21, 2025