Event Description

Getting Your Final Affairs in Order - Online, Pre-recorded. We prepare extensively for weddings, moving, and other life occurrences, but when it comes to planning for our inevitable deaths, do we have our affairs in order? Richard Gallagher—who has settled four estates and has 23 years of experience teaching law, personal finance, and organization—has created a comprehensive program that can help you save time and money and reduce the grief associated with death. Open to all. Materials fee is $10 for all. When you register, you will receive a PDF file with documents and a link to Dr. Gallagher's pre-recorded class that you can watch at your convenience and that takes you page by page through the information. $10 for all, paid at registration.
