

Community home health care services offer coordinated long-term care in your home. Services can include nursing and medical assistance such as health monitoring, case management, medication management, nutrition, rehabilitation therapies, and other needed medical care. Some home health care services are covered by the Home and Community-Based Services (HCBS) Waiver.

---

View PDF