

Community Services Boards

A Community Services Board, also known as a Behavioral Health Authority in some communities (CSB/BHA), is a local provider of supports to individuals with mental health challenges, substance use disorders and intellectual disability (ID) and/or developmental disability (DD). CSBs/BHAs provide support coordination/case management for individuals who wish to transition from an institution to the community with Community Living (CL), the Family and Individual Support (FIS), and the Building Independence (BI) Waivers.

Article

Community Services Boards and Behavioral Health Authorities

Community Services Boards (CSBs) and Behavioral Health Authorities (BHAs) provide an array of emergency, local inpatient, outpatient, case management, day support, employment, residential, and wellness and prevention services.

Source

Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services \(DBHDS\)

Links

Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services: Community Services Boards (CSB's)

Source

Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services: Community Services Boards \(CSB's\)

Links

American Psychological Association

Source

American Psychological Association

Links

Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services (DBHDS)

Source

Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services \(DBHDS\)

Links

National Mental Health Consumers' Self Help Clearinghouse

Source

National Mental Health Consumers' Self Help Clearinghouse

Links

National Institute of Mental Health

Source

National Institute of Mental Health

Links

Virginia Association of Community Services Boards, Inc.

Source

Virginia Association of Community Services Boards, Inc.

Article

Medications Used to Treat Anxiety

Learn more about some of the most common medications used for anxiety disorders.

Source

National Institute of Mental Health

Showing 1-8 of 8 Results