

Community organizations that are actively seeking individuals with the requisite knowledge, skills and experience who are willing to offer their services and work on a full or part-time basis without remuneration on projects or in positions that benefit the organization itself or the people it serves.

Article

Giving Back Helps Others... And You

Volunteering offers many health benefits—especially for older adults.

Source

AARP

Links

Oasis Institute - Lifelong Adventure

Source

Oasis Institute - Lifelong Adventure

Links

AARP Events and Resources Near You

Source

AARP Events and Resources Near You

Article

Greet the Neighbors: 5 Practical Tips for Making Connections Close to Home

Strong social connections are important for our physical and mental well-being. Making connections with neighbors can reduce social isolation and be transformative for everyone!

Source

AARP

Links

National Volunteer Caregiving Network (NVCN)

Source

National Volunteer Caregiving Network \(NVCN\)

Article

Self-Assessment: Is Isolation Affecting Me?

You can take the Connect2Affect Self-Assessment for social isolation for yourself or someone you know.

Source

AARP

Article

Doing Good is Good for You: Volunteer!

Volunteering provides many benefits to your community and to you as a volunteer!

Source

National Association of Area Agencies on Aging

Links

Create the Good by AARP: Community Volunteer Opportunities

Source

Create the Good by AARP: Community Volunteer Opportunities

Links

VolunteerMatch

Source

VolunteerMatch

Links

Shepherd's Centers of America (SCA)

Source

Shepherd's Centers of America (SCA)

Pagination

- Current page 1
- Page 2
- Next page >>
- Last page Last »

Showing 1-10 of 16 Results